SIGHT + SOUND DAMPENING PRIVACY PANELS

RECLAIM® Acoustic Room Dividers

Reclaim Your Space. RECLAIM sight and sound dampening panels divide larger areas into quieter, more functional spaces, providing an easy and cost-efficient way to promote safe social distancing while minimizing distractions in today's open office and education environments.

Constructed from post-consumer recycled PET materials, RECLAIM eco-friendly office partitions are available in 3-packs of panels that can be used individually, zipped together into larger dividers, and expanded with our individual zippered extension panels. Since the zippered connections are flexible, you can wrap panels around desks and tables to create customized workspaces in a variety of shapes and configurations.

Available in attractive colors that complement an upscale office interior, RECLAIM acoustic room dividers assemble in minutes without requiring tools. And best of all, RECLAIM products absorb up to 85% of ambient noise that passes through them, making these room dividers from Luxor a must-have for today's open work environments and modern classrooms.
